

The Interaction between State Courts and Arbitral Tribunals – A Story of Love and Hate

on 15 November 2018, at Cuatrecasas, Av. Diagonal 191, Barcelona

CEA-40 and DIS40 jointly invite you to a seminar on the interaction between state courts and arbitral tribunals and how it is shaping the practice of international arbitration in countries such as Belgium, Spain and Germany. Experienced international arbitration practitioners from Belgium, Spain and Germany will share their views on this topic and will discuss differences and commonalities in the practice of the respective countries.

PROGRAM:

5.45 pm: Registration

6.00 pm Opening Remarks

Cesar Rivera (Cuatrecasas, Barcelona)

Patricia Saiz (ESADE Law School, Barcelona)

Markus Altenkirch (Baker McKenzie, Frankfurt)

6.10 pm Presentations

Vanessa Foncke (Jones Day, Brussels)

Sebastian Kneisel (Borris Hennecke Kneisel, Cologne)

Emma Morales (Linklaters, Madrid)

Moderator: Irene Arranz (Cuatrecasas, Barcelona)

7.10 pm Discussion

7.30 pm Reception

Please register until 10 November 2018 by sending an e-mail to raquel.fernandez@cuatrecasas.com.

Irache Agulló, Frederico Bettencourt
Ferreira, Victor Bonnin, Mónica García,
Silvia Martínez, Giulio Palermo and
Patricia Saiz

CEA -40 Co-Chairs

Jennifer Bryant, Benjamin
Lissner, Annabelle Möckesch,
Markus Altenkirch and Hans
Hahn

DIS40 Co-Chairs and Organisers